THE LEARNING
CONTINUES UNTIL YOU HAVE LEARNED...

Dear Stakeholders

As Shamani Group, we aim to add value and innovation to the sectors we are active in with our knowledge and experience.

While realizing this change and transformation with the importance we attach to branding, we get our greatest strength from our valuable colleagues. The value we place on people, the desire to always do better and teamwork are the foundations of our strength. In addition to growing rapidly, we plan to expand our family with our investments that will contribute to the employment movement. Never giving up on the goal of growth, today we produce customized solutions for all our business partners with our widespread service network in many countries around the world and our customer-oriented approach.

Today, we are proud to combine our reputable commercial activities that have been going on for years in many of the sectors we serve with a strong financial infrastructure. We also know that economic growth alone will not be enough to add value to the future. We continue to work in the light of technology and innovation, without moving away from our corporate governance principles, the values that make us what we are, and our sustainability policies.

As we carry the ever-growing Shamani Group into the future with the right strategy and investments, we will continue to add value to all our stakeholders with our strong team in the areas in which we operate.

Prefer a loss to an immoral gain. The pain of the former lasts a moment, the remorse of the latter lasts a lifetime.

SHAMANI BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Try to help other people with all your strength. If you cannot bring happiness, at least do no harm.
